

Mirrors

1. Draw arrows (representing light) to the pictures to show how a) the boy can see the book he is reading, and b) the girl can see the picture on the wall.

2. Draw arrows (representing light) to the pictures to show how children can see the light from the torch.

