

Catalan	English
DIES FESTIUS
Nit de Nadal	Christmas Eve
Nadal	Christmas Day
	New Year
Cap d'any	New Year's Eve
	New Year's Day
	the Christmas holidays
Nadal	Yuletide
	6th January (the day when presents are traditionally given in Spanish-speaking countries)
	28th December (similar to April Fool's Day)
COSES DE NADAL
	Christmas present
	Christmas decorations and a Christmas wreath mistletoe
	holly
Flor de Nadal	poinsettia
Sopar de Nadal	Christmas dinner
	Christmas tree and a Christmas card.
	Advent calendar
Pessebre	a crib
Missa del Gall	Midnight Mass

Baltassar, Gaspar, Melcior	Balthasar, Gaspar, Melchior. the Three Kings, the Three Wise Men
Menjar els dotze grans de raïm	to see the New Year in. (in Spain a grape is eaten for each stroke of the clock at 12pm on December 31st. Each grape is supposed to represent one month of the new year)
	Happy Christmas
Bones Festes!	Season's greetings!
	the Christmas spirit
	On 6th January there is a Christmas parade, the principal characters are the "magic kings" who drive around the city on a float and shower the children and people with sweets and other presents.
	a nativity scene
	Shepherds and angels
	Father Christmas

MENJARS
Tronc de Nadal o El Tió	a Christmas yule log
	a Christmas cake
Gall d'Indi	turkey
Llagostins	king prawns
Polvorons	a typical Spanish sweet, dry and powdery and made with almonds
Pastís de Reis	a large, round bun baked for 6th January with candied fruits and things hidden (coins, etc.) inside
Turró	a typical Spanish sweet eaten at Christmas made with ground almonds hard and nougat-like made with chocolate and puffed rice
La Grossa de Nadal	Massive Christmas lottery which takes place on 22nd December, almost everyone buys a ticket. The results are sang by children as the balls come out of the machine.