

Joan Miró

SYMBOLS

Joan Miró was a famous artist from Barcelona.

His paintings were abstract, not real. He used mainly primary colours: red, blue, yellow, white and black.

Miró often looked up in the sky to create his symbols and paint his pictures.

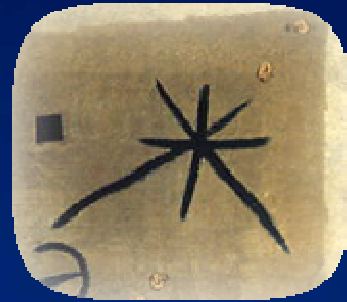

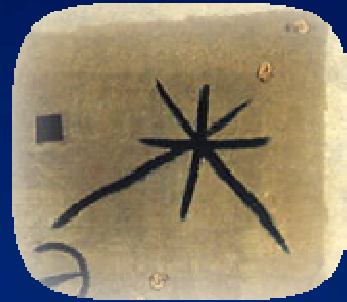

Stars were one of his favourites.

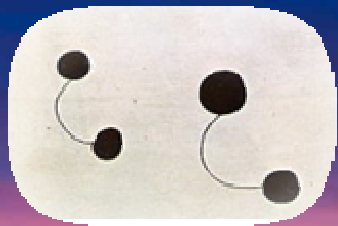

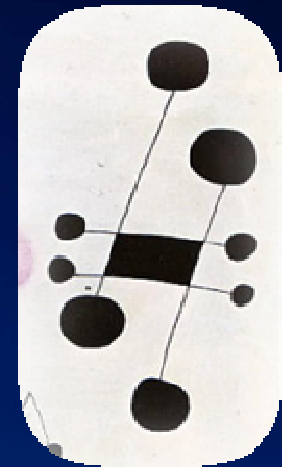

They were five-pointed or just three lines.

The moon was big or small, from diferent colours

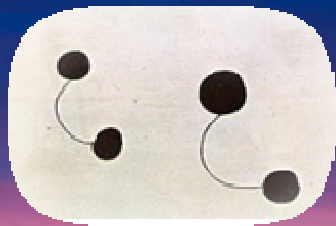

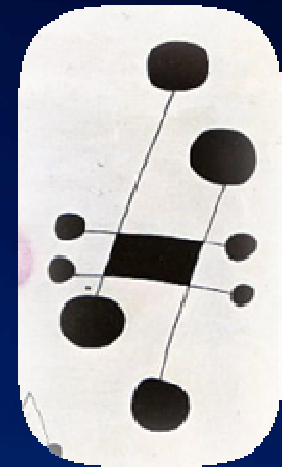

The sun was a red or black circle.

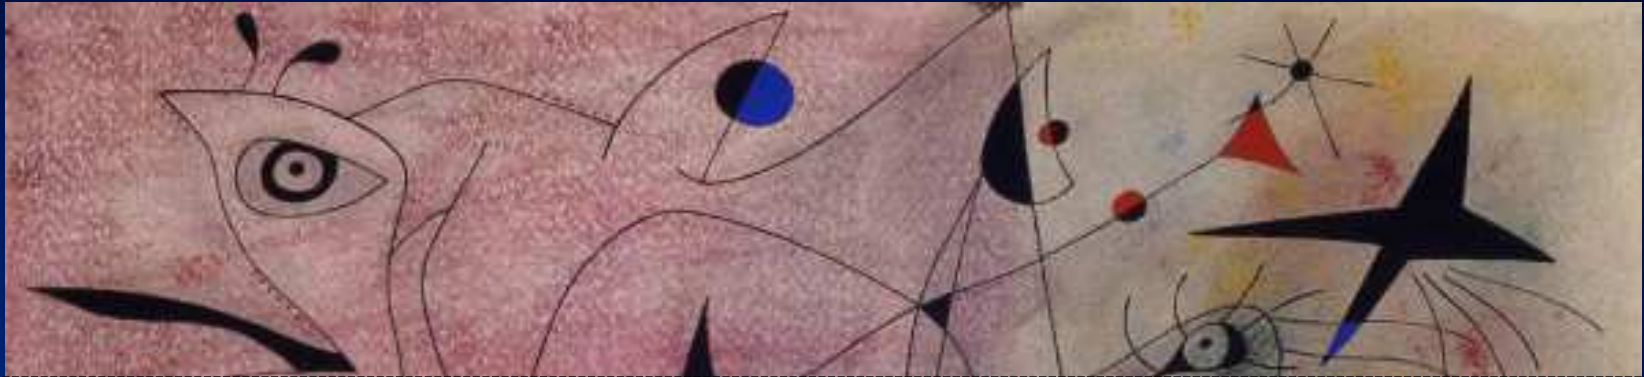

Constellations.

He draw several points joined by black lines.

Birds were simple black lines.

Miró didn't draw reality, but his thoughts.
