Read these jokes and search the simple past tenses

A teacher, a politician, and a lawyer all died and went to heaven. St. Peter was in a bad mood because there were too many people in heaven and he wanted to make it more difficult to enter. When they got to the gate, St. Peter told them that they had to pass a test before they could get into Heaven: they all had to answer one question.

St Peter turned to the teacher and said, "What was the name of the ship that hit the iceberg and sank with all its passengers?"

*The teacher thought for a moment and then replied: "I think it was the Titanic".
St. Peter let him through the gate.*

*He didn't like politicians so he decided to ask a more difficult question, St. Peter turned to the politician, and asked
"How many people died on the ship?"*

*The politician was very lucky because he had read a book about the Titanic.
He said "1228"
This is correct so St. Peter let him through the gate.*

St. Peter turned to the Lawyer and asked "What were their names?"

The Ferrari Joke

*A man wanted to buy a new car so he bought a newspaper and looked in the classified section.
He found an advertisement which said "New Ferrari for sale only $500!" This is a very cheap price for a new Ferrari. He thought it may be a joke but he decided to investigate.*

He went to the house to see the car. A woman answered the door and she led him into the garage. There, in front of him was a new Ferrari.

"Wow!" the man said, "Can I take it for a test drive?"

"Yes you can," answered the lady. He got into the car and then drove it for 10 or 15 minutes. To his surprise he found that the car was perfect.

When he returned to the lady's house, he asked her, "Why are you selling me this great Ferrari for only $500?"

*Then the lady replied with a laugh, "My husband just ran off with his secretary, and he told me,
'You can have the house and the furniture, just sell my Ferrari and send me the money.' "*

The Amnesia Joke

An old married couple noticed that their memory was not as good as before. They started to forget many things. They were worried that this could be dangerous, because one of them could accidentally forget to turn off the cooker and cause a fire. So, they decided to visit their doctor to get some help. Their doctor told them that many people their age write little notes to remind themselves. The old couple thought this a was very good idea, and they left the doctor's office very pleased with the advice.

When they got home, the wife said, "Darling, will you please go to the kitchen and get me a dish of ice cream? And why don't you write that down so you won't forget?"

"Nonsense," said the husband, "I can remember a dish of ice cream!"

"Well," said the wife, "I'd also like some strawberries on it. You better write that down, because I know you will forget."

"Don't be silly," replied the husband. "A dish of ice cream and some strawberries. I can remember that!"

"OK, dear, but I'd like you to put some whipped cream on top. Now you'd really better write it down now. You'll forget," said the wife.

"Come on, my memory's not all that bad," said the husband. "No problem, a dish of ice cream with strawberries and whipped cream."

With that, the husband went into the kitchen and shut the door behind him. The wife could hear him getting out pots and pans, and making some noise inconsistent with his preparing a dish of ice cream, strawberries, and whipped cream. He came out of the kitchen about 15 minutes later.

He walked over to his wife to his wife, he gave her a plate of bacon and eggs. The wife took one look at the plate, then she looked up at her husband and said, "Hey, where's the toast?"

The Heaven Joke

Three men died and went to heaven. The first went up to St. Peter who said, "I have only one question before you go into heaven: Were you faithful to your wife?"

The man answered, "Yes, I never even looked at another women."

St. Peter said, "See that Rolls-Royce over there? That's your car to drive while you're in heaven."

St Peter asked the second man the same question, and he answered, "I once made love to another woman at the office party, but I confessed to my wife and she forgave me and it was OK."

St. Peter said, "That new Peugeot over there, that's your car to use in heaven."

The third man answered the same question, "I am very sorry but, I chased every girl I saw, and I was with a lot of different women."

St. Peter said, "OK, but when you were alive you were a good person, you gave money to the poor and you did many good things, so that old Seat 600 over there is yours to use while you're in heaven."

The three man entered heaven and went separate ways.

A few weeks later, man #2 and man #3 were driving along when they saw man #3's Rolls Royce parked outside of a bar. They stopped and went into the bar and found man #1 with empty bottles all around him, he looked very unhappy. They went up to him and man#2 said, "What's the matter, what could possibly be so bad, you're in heaven, you drive a Rolls Royce, and everything is wonderful!"

He said, "I saw my wife today!"

The other two answered, "That's very good! What's the problem?"

He answered, "She didn't have a car, she had a skateboard!"

Holiday Moments

Thirteen year old Emma from Leeds wins this week's prize with her news about her holiday in the south of Spain.

The last day of my holiday in the south of Spain was definitely the best. It was my birthday and my mum and dad wanted to give me a surprise. We went to a town called Tarifa. It was foggy and very windy when we arrived.

We couldn't visit the castle or go to the beach. We stayed in the car for an hour. My mum and dad were angry and they wanted to go back to the hotel. We had lunch and then suddenly the sun came out and the wind stopped. We saw the coast of Africa in front of us, only fourteen kilometres away. My dad bought some tickets to go on a boat trip. We saw dolphins and whales swimming in the sea and I read all the information about them. It was fantastic. I wrote dolphin postcards to all my friends. In the evening I saw a film about a whale in North America and I dreamed about my next birthday!
