

TIMELINES: MUNCUNILL and GAUDÍ

Lluís Muncunill was born on 25 th February 1868 in Sant Vicenç de Fals, near Manresa.	Antoni Gaudí was born in Reus (Tarragona), in southern Catalonia on 25 th June 1852.
Muncunill moved to Terrassa in 1891 after finish his architectural studies.	Gaudi moved to Barcelona in 1869 and became an architectural student in 1873.
From 1892 till 1903 Muncunill works as civil servant architect in Terrassa.	From 1883 till 1926 Gaudí was working on the designs of Sagrada Família.
In 1907, Muncunill designs his most important industrial building: The Aymerich i Amat Factory "Vapor Aymerich i Amat" which finishes in 1908	In 1906, Gaudí built Casa Milà known as "La Pedrera" which finished in 1910.
From 1907 till 1910 Muncunill renovated an old factory "La Masia Freixà" as a private house.	From 1904 till 1906 Gaudí works remodelling the Casa Batlló
Lluís Muncunill died in Terrassa in 1931	On 10 th June 1926, after being knocked down by a tram, Gaudí died in Barcelona.