

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
Explain some differences and similarities between the landscapes in our planet due to human influence.
Name some renewable and non-renewable resources and explain the differences between them.
Give reasons why we have to use renewable resources.
Communicate facts about a range of natural resources.
Name some types of pollution and explain the differences between them.
List some sources and effects of the different types of pollution.
Give examples of Global Warming in Spain and Catalonia.
Realise how long rubbish can take before it breaks down.
Show an understanding of the fact that they can change things in the environment for the better.
Describe how they can reuse, reduce and recycle materials.
Give examples to show that in their daily actions they are green.
Develop and design a poster to show individual actions can save the planet.									