

HARRY POTTER AND THE PHILOSOPHER'S STONE

Get in groups of three, discuss the questions below, and do the required tasks.

1. Have you seen the film Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone?
 - a. if yes. Did you enjoy it?
 - b. If not. Are you planning to go?
2. Why do you think the book has been so popular among children and even adults?
3. Do you think it will become a classic or that its success is the result of publicity?
4. As a group, describe amongst yourselves the plot of the book or film as if you were relating it to a third party. Do not write but talk about it.
5. Search the web for information about the film and contrast your description with the one you find in the site.
6. Using the plot as a model, invent the story of the new book or film to come.
7. When you finish the task, save the text so that the other students can read and comment on it.
