

READING QUESTIONNAIRE

Before starting our conversation group, discuss the following questions within the group.

1. Is reading important to you? Why?
2. How often do you read?
3. What are your reading preferences?
4. What topics do you like reading about?
5. Can you name some of your favourite authors?
6. What are your reasons for joining this group of literary buffs?
7. Does reading in English improve your knowledge of the language? How?
8. Do you have any ideas or preferences as to what you would like to read during the course?

From the selection of short stories provided, you should agree on one to read at home. Have a look at the titles and speculate about the possible content of the different stories. Ask your friends if they know something about them. Don't leave the room without having reached an agreement on what to read. We'll talk about the story in the next session.

Enjoy your reading!
