

Presentation Rubric				Class Evaluation
	Excellent 25	Well Done 20	Meets Standards 15	Beginning 10	No evidence 0	Score
Content	All relevant and extra information and images from all members of the group are included in summary form in the presentation.	All relevant information and images from all members of the group are included in summary form in the presentation.	Most relevant information from 2 of 3 members of the group is included in the presentation.	Some relevant information is presented.	No presentation is given.
Organization	Presentation is well organized and follows a logical train of thought.	Presentation is mostly well organized.	Presentation has some information in inappropriate order.	Presentation seems unorganized and is hard to follow.	No presentation is given.
Editing	Fewer than 10 spelling or grammatical errors throughout the project.	10 to 15 spelling or grammar errors throughout the project.	16 to 30 spelling or grammar errors throughout the project.	31 to 40 spelling or grammar errors throughout the project.	More than 40 spelling or grammar errors throughout the project.
Technical Quality	-Website presentation is visually appealing. -Images are well-chosen and placed. -Text is well-written and understandable.	Presentation contains 2 of the three criteria.	Presentation contains 1 of the three criteria.	Website presentation was obviously thrown together without much effort.  No images are included.	No presentation is given.
Grammar &amp; Pronunciation	Presenter(s) speak(s) with correct pronunciation of all words including all technical terms.	Presenter(s) speak(s) with correct pronunciation of all words including most technical terms.	Presenter(s) speak(s) with correct pronunciation of most words.	Presenter(s) speak(s) with several errors in pronunciation.	No presentation is given.
Voice Projection	Presenter(s) speak(s) in a natural manner and can be heard by the entire class.	Presenter(s) speak(s) in a natural manner and can be heard by the entire class.	Presenter(s) speak(s) in a natural manner and can be heard by the entire class.	Presenter(s) speak(s) in a natural manner and can be heard by the entire class.	No presentation is given.
Body language	Presenter(s) face(s) the audience, makes eye contact, and refers to the Website projection at appropriate times.	Presenter(s) face(s) the audience BUT NO Eye contact is made, and refers to the Website projection at appropriate times.	Presenter(s) face(s) the audience and refers to the Website projection sometimes.	Presenter(s) read off of a sheet without looking at audience or referring to the Website projection.	No presentation is given.	