Our Presentation of Homberg

We now want to show you famous sights of the town!

Have fun !!

Where is Homberg ?

Homberg is here on the map where you can see the red spot

Die Marienkirche - Saint Mary's Church

It was built in the 14th century.

Saint Mary's Church is still very famous for its architecture and its history. When you come to Homberg we will show the church to you.

Die Marienkirche - Saint Mary's Church

Inside the church

Die Hohenburg

Die Hohenburg is on top of a hill which is 377m high so that you can see the tower and the flag long before you finally come to Homberg.

It was built in the 12th century.

There is also a well which is 150m deep. It is one of the deepest wells in Germany.

Das Rathaus - The Townhall

This is the townhall.
It was built in 1704 on the foundations of another house.
Herr Wagner, the present mayor, has got his office there on the first floor.

Das Hochzeitshaus - The Wedding House

The Wedding house was built in 1571. It was used for Wedding parties, festivals and other big celebrations/events. From time to time it even was the official town hall.

Today the building is used as the museum of local history. You can see a lot of things there, made and used by the people of Homberg and the villages around Homberg in former times.

Das Wappen - The Coat of Arms

This is the official coat of arms.
It shows the castle and St.Mary's Church we introduced to you!
