Melsungen

- Melsungen is situated in the middle of Germany.

- The river running through Melsungen is named Fulda

Die Bartenwetzerbrücke
The Axe Whetters' Bridge

- It was built in the 16th century and is the oldest bridge in Melsungen.

- 1000 years ago men went over the bridge to cut down trees.

- They used the stones of the bridge to sharpen their axes.

Das Rathaus - The Townhall

It is in the centre of the marketplace and was built in 1556.
In the tower with the clock there is a wooden axe whetter hidden
You can see it at noon.

Der Marketplatz – The Marketplace

- At our marketplace there is an original English telephone box.
- Melsungen is twinned with Evesham in England

Die Stadtkirche
The Church in the Centre of Melsungen

- Our church was built from 1415 to 1425.
