

JUST/ ALREADY/ YET/ STILL

JUST i ALREADY s'utilitzen amb més freqüència en la forma verbal de Present Perfect:

I have just done the washing-up. (Acabo de fer els deures)

They have already arrived at the station. (Ja han arribat a l'estació)

Ordre: entre mig de l'auxiliar i el verb.

YET vol dir encara (frases negatives) o ja (frases interrogatives) .

He hasn't come yet.(Encara no ha arribat)

Has he arrived yet? (ja ha arribat?)

Ordre: al final de la frase

STILL vol dir encara en frases afirmatives i interrogatives.

Normalment es fa servir en temps 'continuous'

He is still doing the homework? (Encara està fent els deures)

Is he still doing the homework?

Ordre: després del subjecte

❖ Complete the following sentences with still, yet or already:

1. Has that film you want to watch started
2. No, it hasn't. Do you want to watch it, too?
3. I'm not sure. I think I've seen it.
4. I think the news is on. Let's watch it.
5. What, you mean it hasn't finished.....?
6. No, and it'snine thirty.
7. Do you want to watch it? Have you decided
8. I'vetold you. I'm not sure.
9. In other words, you're thinking about it.

Already, just , yet, ever, never

❖ Read the following sentences. Discuss where the words can go. Sometimes there are several possibilities.

1. I've washed my hair.
2. Have you played basketball.
3. He has learned to drive.
4. He has not learned to drive.
5. They've finished the exercise.
6. She's learned a foreign language.
7. We've met your teacher.
8. Have they finished doing the washing-up?
9. Has it stopped raining?